SPECIAL NOTICE
SHELBY COUNTY FAIR - RULES AND REGULATIONS

NOTE: All livestock trailers for cattle, hog and sheep exhibitors are to park along the south fence of the fairgrounds – across from the baseball fields. Trailers for the horse exhibitors will park along the east fence of the fairgrounds – east of the horse barns.

1. All open class competition is open to the world unless otherwise stated.
2. The Shelby County Fair Management reserves to its Board of Directors the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations, and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with or incident to the Shelby County Fair.
3. The Shelby County Fair Management will not be responsible for typographical errors in this book. If any occur, they will be interpreted by the Board of Directors.
4. The Shelby County Fair Management and Board of Directors will take all possible precautions for the safe-keeping of stock and articles on exhibition after their arrival and arrangement, but WILL NOT BE HELD RESPONSIBLE for any loss or damage that may occur. Exhibitors must give personal attention to their exhibits at the close of the fair and must attend to their removal.
5. Superintendents shall have full charge of their department, being responsible to the Fair Board and Secretary. Superintendents shall take charge of the reception, entry, and arrangement of all exhibits in their departments, be present to aid the judge when necessary, and be responsible for proper supervision of the exhibits in their departments while the building is open. Superintendents shall see that the specific rules and regulations of their departments and general rules and regulations of the Shelby County Fair are strictly complied with.
6. When an entry is made, the Superintendent or Entry Clerk of that department will give the exhibitor a numbered entry tag which must be attached to the animal or article and shall remain thereon until the close of the fair.
7. Each Open Class Non-Livestock Superintendent will be furnished, by the Secretary, an Entry Book in which they shall place the exhibitor name, address, division, class, description and exhibitor number of every article entered for competition in that department. These entries will be compiled by the Secretary into a Judges Book which will be supplied to each Superintendent on judging day for the placing of those entries so designated by the Judge. No other mark or identification of ownership shall be placed in this book until awards have been made by the judge. Each Superintendent shall return this book, properly signed by the Judge, to the Secretary as soon as judging in that department has been completed. Premiums will be tallied by the secretary from the judge's book. Premiums will be paid by check to each exhibitor. All premium checks for open class non-livestock exhibits must be picked up during release time of the exhibit. Any premium check not picked up during release time will be forfeited to the Shelby County Fair Corporation.
8. No person except the Department Superintendent, Entry Clerk, Secretary, or Fair Board Officer or Director will be allowed to examine the Entry Books until after the awards have been made.
9. All animals and articles entered for premiums shall be classed under the appropriate departments and shall be under the control of the Department Superintendent, in cooperation with a licensed veterinarian, during the fair, who shall exclude from the fairgrounds all infected animals or animals which are suffering from a contagious or infectious disease.
10. All open class non-livestock entries must be in the proper place on or before 6:30 p.m., Wednesday, July 13, 2022, except as otherwise noted. See 4-H and FFA Division Schedule for entry deadlines.
11. No animal on exhibit for premium nor any article placed on exhibit for premium may be removed from its place of exhibit before 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, July 17, 2022, unless give written permission by a committee consisting of the Department Superintendent, one fair board member, one extension employee, one 4-H leader, and one FFA leader. Failure to abide by these rules will forfeit to the Corporation all premiums awarded. Trophies and ribbons will also be forfeited. If the animal is a market animal, the exhibitor loses eligibility to participate in the livestock auction.
12. All exhibits must be removed by 5:00 p.m., Sunday, July 17, 2022.
13. All entries will be made in accordance with the rules and regulations set forth in the various departments as shown by the premium list. Any entries not listed in the premium list but made as a special entry will be awarded a Ribbon only.
14. Parties exhibiting purebred livestock will be required to show pedigrees and prove acceptance of record of all animals one year old or over. Satisfactory evidence must be furnished of the dame and sire of all animals under one year old. Failure to comply will forfeit all fees and bar from competition.
15. Persons entering stock to be exhibited will be expected to have it in readiness to call.

16. All entry fees, stall rent or pen rent, where stated or charged, must be paid when entries are made. Exhibitors making entries and not exhibiting shall forfeit all such fees.
17. No person shall be allowed to act as Judge of, or in, any department, in which he has stock or articles entered as an exhibitor for premiums.
18. No animals will be allowed to run at large on the fairgrounds.
19. The same animal or article will not be eligible to two premiums when competing against itself except at sweepstakes.
20. No animal or article will receive a premium when deemed unworthy by the Judge, though it may be the only animal or article entered.
21. If it is ascertained that any exhibitor has made or accused to be made any false statements in regard to any animal or article exhibited, or if any exhibitor shall attempt to interfere with the Judges in their performance of their duties by letter, circular, or otherwise, he shall be excluded from competing or exhibiting on the grounds of the Shelby County Fair Corporation.
22. The word "best" as a prefix to articles has been omitted from our list, but it is understood that the first premium is to be for the best article, the second for the next best, and so on, when more than one premium is given.
23. The Shelby County Fair Corporation reserves the right and privilege to reduce the amount of all premiums and awards made on exhibits listed herein an amount not to exceed 50 per cent of such premium or award, if the fair is confronted with adverse weather conditions or other contingencies beyond its control.
24. No premiums will be paid to 4-H/FFA members until the animal stalls and exhibit areas are cleaned.
25. If a 4-H or FFA exhibitor is not able to exhibit his/her static exhibit or livestock due to injury, severe illness, or military deployment, a substitute exhibitor will be allowed. Prior approval must be obtained from all of the following: the fair board, extension, and FFA (if exhibitor is participating through FFA).

JUDGES AND AWARDS

The special attention of Judges is invited to the following rules for making awards. Much of the harmony and success of the fair depends upon the accuracy and knowledge of the Judges and promptness with which they do their work.

33. When there is nothing in a class deserving a premium, the Judges shall make no award.
34. Lack of competition shall not be the cause of withholding a premium if the animal or article is worthy.
35. Judges will be careful to put on ribbons denoting first, second, and third as they make awards, and especially careful that ribbons and reports agree.
36. All articles and animals entered for premiums must be made in the name of the bonafide owner, grower, or manufacturer.
37. The judges of cattle, sheep, and hogs will have regard to symmetry, early maturity, size and general characteristics of the breed to which they belong. They will make proper allowance for age, feeding, and other circumstances affecting the character and condition of the animals, and may require satisfactory proof of the same.
38. No animal of the breeding classes incapable of breeding will require a premium where that quality of the animal is required.
39. Exhibitors of pure or standard bred stock must establish their eligibility.
40. No award will be made to any breeding animal that may be barren or has hereditary unsoundness.
41. Substitute showmen are allowed with approval by respective Department Superintendent.

46.
